

320 BC

The Pontifex maximus compiled annales.
This annual record of the names of magistrates and of memorable events
did not become part of the official state archives until 320 BC.